On the National College homepage click the drop down arrow on Quick links. Choose the “Libraries” choice. Then choose the Britannica Online under the Virtual Library menu. You may or may not need a username and password.

Username: natlcoll2   Password: bolaccess

There are several Research Tools available on the left hand menu including Timelines and World Atlas. To find information on your topic, conduct a search on your topic using the search box at the top of the page. Encyclopedia Britannica will return results based on your search term. The results screen also offers several research tools including media and websites.